Joe Kelley will bring us an encouraging message with practical tips for UMMen ministry. Joe serves as the South Central Jurisdictional President of the United Methodist Men. He considers it an honor to serve the twelve conferences in eight states from Nebraska to Texas, Missouri to Louisiana plus New Mexico. Joe has served as National Prayer Advocate for the Upper Room Living Prayer Center and as President of Louisiana Conference UMMen, plus in most areas in his local St. Francisville UM church. Joe has received several awards for service and evangelism.

"Has anyone told you they love you today?" is a trademark of Joe's personality as his expression of Christian love to all who come into contact with him. His enthusiasm makes him especially effective as a leader of UM Men. Joe is a husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather.

When asked what advice he would give for presidents and men's group leaders, he said "Study, study, study the Bible. We (as leaders) represent Jesus Christ in everything we do. If we don't know Him, then we can't do it." He adds, "Be the men in Psalm 112; Live John 15: 9-17; Pray Psalm 51."
