COLUMBUS – First United Methodist Church celebrated the coming of fall with their annual Fall Family Festival Sunday afternoon.

Board of Education member, Becky Shepherd, says the festival is a nice way for members of the church as well as members of the community to come together and find out what the church is all about.

The festival did not disappoint. First United Methodist provided an obstacle course, the boy scout maze, pumpkin decorating, a cake walk, crafts and also a hayrack ride.

The hayrack ride could be taken to the outreach center where they also had face painting and those interested could have their pictures taken.

Kids love animals so First United Methodist used this opportunity to help Paws N Claws try to find pets a new home.

“They have all kinds of rescue animals that you can go in and rescue. We started having them come out several years ago and that’s just kind of a fun way to get the animals out here so they can get some attention and the kids love them,” exclaimed Shepherd.

Those who attended the festival did not leave hungry as there were plenty of snacks, salad, and over 200 hot dogs to be served at the event.
