

Janet Hibbs Jones receives the NARSP Big Apple Award

Janet Hibbs Jones received the NARSP (Nebraska Association of Retired School Personnel) Big Apple Award at the State Convention of the Association on October 11th in Grand Island. The Big Apple Award is given annually in appreciation for dedicated leadership, service and contributions to one's church, community and beyond. Janet has been active for many years in the Hastings, Nebraska State and National Retired School Personnel Associations. She has served on many educational and community boards and is currently a member of the Nebraska State AARP Executive Council. She is an organist/ pianist for 1st United Methodist Church in Columbus and is a substitute teacher for the school district.